THE SEVEN

Synopsis:

60 Years ago a group of Devil worshipers died in a mysterious fire which burnt their mansion down to the ground.

Now years later a college stands on the site where the mansion once stood. VICTORIA is a pole dancer who has fallen in love with a boy (HARRY) 5 years her junior and still at the college.

She has decided that she wants one night of passion in the arms of her love and if the age gap means he can't provide that then she will dump him behind. HARRY, with the help of his friend Luke, knowing that his relationship could end, sets about creating the ultimate romantic night in their college.

However Victoria's friends hear about Harry's ridiculous plans and plot to sabotage the evenings events.

THE SEVEN all turn up at the college but unfortunately end up getting locked in by the 'live in caretaker' Squeaky.

SQUEAKY is an odd Character who pushes his wobbly wheeled cart around the college cleaning up after all the students. There are many urban myths based around Squeaky but nobody knows the truth about his history, the fact that he is the only survivor from the mansion fire makes him even more mysterious.

As the night goes on each member of the Seven gets picked off by an evil force until there is only one left.

Director's Bio

Richard Colton

Richard has worked in the film and TV industry for the past 25 years as an editor and second unit director. He has worked on many well known low budget movies such as 'Strippers Vs Werewolves', 'The Fall of the Essex Boys', 'The Rise and Fall of a White Collar Hooligan' and 'Alien Uprising' as well as TV shows such as 'London's Burning' 'The Bill', 'Casualty', 'Dream Team' and 'Trial and retribution'.

Richard always had aspirations to direct his own work but it wasn't until Richard meet Amar on the set of Retribution that the two realised they had all the key ingredients to make an awesome and interesting movies and a partnership was born.

Richard has now directed two features, Dangerous Game, Dead Ringer and Ria.

Richard strongly believes in the principle that you don't need a huge budget to make a watchable and enjoyable movie. What you do need is the right script, cast and crew. If you have these and you let everyone utilise their own particular talent working as a team, that's when you get a fantastic movie. Following in the footsteps of Robert Wise, David Lean, Stuart Baird, to name a few, Richard's background from the editing room means he knows what not to shoot as much as what to shoot.

Producer's Bio

Amar Adatia

Amar has been acting for over 16 years, from the age of 14. His first movie role was in the Bollywood hit Kabhie Khushi, Khabie Gham. However, being a young British-Asian, Amar soon became dissatisfied with the limited number of roles available to him and so set about producing his own movies.

To date, Amar has now produced four movies, three of which are getting world wide releases this year, Four Hours, Gangsters Gamblers Geezers, Requiem, Dangerous Game The Seven and Ria.

Amar lives by the guiding principle that nothing is impossible. Having a low budget doesn't mean a film can't be made. On the contrary, it should be made and it should far exceed anybody's expectations.

Newton Films Ltd. was set up in 2018 by Amar Adatia and Richard Colton, with the goal to produce the film The Seven.

The guiding company principle is to make low budget movies at a high quality utilising assets that Amar and Richard can each bring to the productions: Amar with his connections to reality TV & previous production experience, and Richard with his creative vision and extensive production experience.
